CERTAIN ingonious Chinese, says the Straits Times, are making a handsome profit by a smart fraud. Some merchants in town are wont to sell goods to Chinese and to receive payment in rolls of copper coin, each roll containing fifty cents. The Chinese referred to are substituting for these rolls packages containing a piece of bar iron the exact size and weight of a roll of forby eight cents : and an ordinary cent is put on each end of the bar ip onse of the end of the roll being opened. One merchant alone received recently forty dollars in alleged rolls of copper and found on opening them that each roll contained two cents and an iron bar. The merchant in question failed to obtain a conviction from lacking sufficient evidence. The remedy would seem to be that merchents should immediately examine all rolls tendered, or failing that that they should combine and refuse to accept
